

Date: September 13, 2001 This passed into Kingdom Law

The following criteria must be met to form an Estate:

At least Thirty days notice will be required for the formation of an Estate. A list of the members and a color copy of the Arms will be submitted to the Crown at the time of the request, although formation of the estates is not contingent on approval of the arms. $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members must be present on the day the Estate is formed.