

At the August 2000 Estates meeting, the following law was passed:

In order to qualify to run for the position of King or Queen, one must meet all of the existing qualifications per the current by-laws and must additionally have a registered and approved coat of arms.

The vote was passed by a majority vote.