

This law was passed at an emergency estates meeting, under Sir Raffe's reign, in Sept. 2000.

Verbal proxies will be allowed for emergency type situations, with the approval of the Crown and Chancellor. All verbal proxies will be followed up in writing as soon as practical in order to be filed with the Chancellor's office for record keeping.

Please note: The current Imperial Chancellor's manual allows for verbal proxies also.